

Article Link

<http://allafrica.com/stories/201203011205.html>

Burundi: Country Launches National Plan to Combat Neglected Tropical Diseases

The Government of Burundi have announced its latest control efforts to eliminate Neglected Tropical Diseases including schistosomiasis and soil-transmitted helminths. School-based deworming and schistosomiasis treatments will be delivered as part...

February 28, 2012