

private sector and government to promote digital innovation can help foster inclusive financial systems that protect consumers and equip them with the tools necessary to meet their financial needs.

This Sixth Annual Responsible Finance Forum (RFFVI) brings together policymakers, financial service providers, and researchers for an evidence-based, interactive discussion on advancing inclusive and responsible financial services, financial capability programs, private sector initiatives, and proportionate consumer protection measures in a digital world.

Event Website

Draft Agenda

Organized by:

Supported by:

Managed by:

City

Antalya

Country

Turkey