

Date

June 14, 2016

IPA Colombia Presents Tablet-Based Financial Education Preliminary Results

On June 14th, Fundación Capital, in collaboration with Citi Foundation and the Colombian Social Prosperity Department, organized a Financial Inclusion Digital event in Bogotá, Colombia. The event gathered experts from the public and private sector across Latin America to share their experience with LISTA, a financial inclusion initiative designed by Fundación Capital that is being evaluated by IPA. At the event, Matthew Bird, Principal Investigator of the project, presented the preliminary results of the study in Colombia.

City

Bogotá

Country

Colombia