IPA Led Learning Lunch at USAID's Digital Development Forum

IPA led a learning lunch table during USAID's Digital Development Forum on the 17th of July 2017 in Lusaka. This action-packed event focused on innovative and effective digital development solutions in Zambia for improving education, health, and agriculture and featured local technology firms, USAID implementing partners, and multiple donors. The topic was "Promising directions for women's empowerment through digital finance: Evidence from randomized control trials."
