IPA Myanmar Hosts Roundtable on the Use of Impact Evaluations for Peace-Building Policy and Programming

On September 25, IPA Myanmar hosted its first of a series of roundtables to discuss the potential use of impact evaluations for programming and policy across various sectors in Myanmar. This inaugural roundtable focused on governance, conflict, and peace-building, with representatives from 10 organizations in attendance. Guest speaker Aprille Knox, Senior Policy Associate at the Abdul Latif Jameel Poverty Action Lab (J-PAL), presented about impact evaluation strategies for this sector and the Governance, Crime, and Conflict Initiative's portfolio and partnership opportunities.
