IPA & Graduation Model Featured on PBS NewsHour

PBS NewsHour reported from Ethiopia on IPA's research examining the Ultra-Poor Graduation model, which targets the world's poorest. Tedros Kesete explains the data collection process, and economists Dean Karlan & Rachel Glennerster explain why the coordinated set of studies also tested the model in Ghana, Honduras, India, Pakistan, and Peru and how good data can help us identify the most effective poverty solutions.

August 26, 2019