

Access to Agency: Empowering Women through Digital Inclusion | July 2-3, 2025 @
Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration, Accra

Organized by BRAC Institute of Governance and Development (BIGD), Brac University and Innovations for Poverty Action (IPA)

Would you like to feature your work on digitization and women's empowerment at BIGD/IPA's international conference?

BIGD and IPA welcome innovators in the space of digitization and women's empowerment to share their work at our upcoming conference, "Access to Agency: Empowering Women through Digital Inclusion"!

Apply for an opportunity to feature your work in the form of a poster presentation or exhibition booth at our event. The top three participants will be selected by an advisory board for cash prizes.

Posters will be selected for inclusion at the conference, and for the cash prizes, on the basis of the following criteria:

- Relevance to the conference's themes
- Creativity and innovation
- Intellectual rigor
- Potential for impact

*A representative must be able to attend the conference in person to present during the exhibition. Up to two representatives will be permitted to attend the conference in full, and to present during the exhibition.

We especially encourage submissions from the following:

- Women
- Graduate students and early career researchers
- Early-career innovators
- Innovators and researchers from low- and middle-income countries

Please submit your application here by June 13, 2025. If applying to present a poster, please design your poster using this template. Applicants will be notified regarding the status of their application by June 18, 2025. For more information, please visit our event pages here and here. Please note that unfortunately we cannot accommodate late submissions.

*Please note that the conference organizers will cover the expense of printing posters or setting up exhibition booths for selected submissions.
